

An adventure saga... a love story... and the intimate confessions of a Mennonite hero.

In the face of intractable opposition, Mennonite hero and medical pioneer, Dr. John Schmidt, tackles the seemingly impossible with dogged perseverance – layered over a gnawing yet unexplored sense of his own worthlessness – until he faces the inevitability of his physical decline. Only then, amidst the pain and humiliation of apparent defeat, does he confront his underlying fears and self-loathing, thereby discovering the balm of acceptance and self-forgiveness.

Dr. John's inner journey is a universal path of transformation available to all of us if we have the courage to begin peeling off the layers of our hidden fears and open to new meaning in our lives.

Join him on this deeply personal and spiritual quest for peace in A JOURNEY HOME [April 2023].

Memoir

PAPERBACK ISBN: 978-1-6667-7383-5

HARDCOVER ISBN: 978-1-6667-7384-2

EBOOK ISBN: 978-1-6667-7385-9

168 Pages

$19.00

Publication Date: April 2023

Contact: www.wipfandstock.com

ABOUT THE AUTHORS Marlena Fiol and Ed O'Connor are emeritus professors and spiritual seekers whose writing explores the depths of who we are and what's possible in our lives. They are the award-winning authors of CALLED: A True Story and Marlena's memoir, Nothing Bad Between Us: A Mennonite Missionary's Daughter Finds Healing in Her Brokenness.

To learn more, visit MarlenaFiol.com.